THANKYOU A huge thank you to Nena who has donated her time to the school, creating our new school logo. It’s great to have a fresh updated logo and we are very appreciative of the time Nena has put in to it. Let us know what you think next time you’re at school.

KINDY ORIENTATION DAYS Thanks Linda and Sam for the time taken in revamping our Kindy Orientation kits. They are full of information necessary for starting school. The new look information booklet is just the thing for our new age students, both young and old. The next four Fridays are our orientation days. Following on from remarks made at the last P&C meeting, the orientation days are for any new families and students wishing to have a look at our great little school.

MOSAICING From yesterday’s P&C meeting another burst of mosaicing will be happening soon. If we can get a couple more helpers for a couple of hours, this should just about complete the tiling in readiness for the grouting. It is looking great and I am looking forward to seeing it completed in the near future.

LARNOOK’S GOT TALENT It has been great to see children doing things at school in preparedness for Larnook’s Got Talent. It is nearly that time when we ask for nominations and call for auditions. The staff are getting excited.

OPERA HOUSE CHOIR The Opera House choir finished with a bang last week. In what was a very hectic couple of days the children sang so well and the response from the audience was so enthusiastic and appreciative. I would say awesome and inspirational as well. The gasp from the audience followed by the applause when they first stood as a 700 strong combined choir was so full of energy. Speaking to many of the parents, grandparents and friends who were able to see the performance, they were full of praise for the manner in which they performed and sang. One very touching part was the appreciation and recognition of the efforts of the teaching staff in making this happen. This doesn’t happen as often as it should and makes it that much more special for them. I know it does from my point of view. I think I might be human after all!

NEW TIMETABLE The revamped term 4 timetable has a special period for the Blue Tongues on a Monday afternoon. We will be getting our hands dirty from working in the garden looking after our vegetables and plants that will be planted over the coming weeks. Our first lesson began with a collection of seed from the sprouting lettuce. They are hanging upside down in the garden shed, drying out in paper bags, waiting for the seed to drop. We had a big chat about the life cycle of things. Sonic can’t wait till we harvest our produce. What a great word from a kindergarten child.

We also have a Monday morning combined library session. Mrs Spackman and I, along with Ms Moy, will be in the library with all the children helping them beg, borrow and browse! Please remember that borrowing has now changed to the Monday morning and all children wishing to borrow need to bring in their library bags. There are lots of great books to be read.

PERFORMANCE Congratulations to the Baha’i scripture group who performed yesterday to a small but enthusiastic audience. Thankyou Christobel, for organising the performance and for the time you give each week in working with the children. Special mention must be made of the presentation to Jazz who was recognised for his efforts in helping prepare the performance.

RECYCLING WEEK Next week is National Recycling week. This is rather timely to remind people that the school is a drop off centre for all those things like batteries and printer cartridges. To help celebrate Recycling week we will be having a Nude Food day next Friday. Remember a nude food lunch box contains no rubbish or prepackaged foods instead using containers, reusable wraps or paper wrap.

MOVIE NIGHT Please keep Wednesday evening free on the 11th November. This is the date for the movie night. The movie night will cost $5 and will include two movie sessions that will cater for children of all ages. The SRC are preparing mexican wraps for dinner with a vegetarian and beef option this will cost $5 for a plate. Snacks will also be on sale on the night if you feel like something to nibble on with your movie. Please remember to fill out the attached permission note and return it to school as soon as possible.

Remember our movie night is for the whole community so please invite your family and friends down for a great evening!

SOFTBALL TRIP I will be away from the beginning of week 7 through till the end of week 8 with State Softball commitments. This is my last State commitment in my teaching career (I am just reminding myself) but I will continue to have North Coast commitments next year. Nicole Benson will be replacing me whilst I am away.
